Nerium International was started by a man named Jeff Olson, who basically was a sizeable component of Prepaid Legal for an although. This man is an effectively known and also renowned Multilevel marketing leader, and also offers a large following of individuals. As you actually could possibly know, this kind of can easily be very highly effective. With amazing leadership comes terrific results, that's why I see the actual prospective with this particular new corporation. Mr. Olson is really a strong mentor, plus is effectively ready to carry Nerium International into the actual long term.

What does Nerium International sell?

Nerium International presently markets 1 product. This particular is quite understandable with a brand new business. They call it NeriumAD Age-Defying Treatment. The idea is patent pending but offers thousands of third party consumer testimonials that show me this kind of product or service is legit and also operating to get a number of men and women for it's anti aging properties.
